Course Description: Consumers want to work with real estate professionals who are efficient, knowledgeable, and up-to-date. Technology enables you to streamline your operation in order to better serve the public, but the learning process can be overwhelming. This course will provide a myriad of tools and solutions for you in your day-to-day dealings with the public. Each module will cover an important aspect of how technology will ensure that the consumer is fully served in a real estate transaction.

This class will also teach you how to share your knowledge base, professional opinion, and availability, using current systems and tools that are beneficial to the public at large.

GRI & CE Credit: You must be in the class the entire time and receive 75% or higher exam grade to pass class and earn GRI Credit. (Georgia CE may be earned with a lower exam grade.)

How to Earn your GRI Designation: For specific requirements, click here or go to garealtor.com/education/gri/gri-requirements/.
