

Deborah Nagel, CRB has coached and managed over 2000 agents in her career and guided those agents through countless successful real estate transactions. Deborah's experience in brokerage management, sales, international relocation, single-family, multi-unit, and high-rise property management gives her broad perspective into real estate and helps her bring a very diverse and broad range of experience to the classroom.

Deborah holds a Georgia Real Estate Instructors license, is the current President-Elect for the Cobb Association of REALTORS®, PIE Instructor, GIRE Instructor, serves on the GAR Education Committee, Current Chair of Leadership Development Cobb Association of REALTORS®, 2018 REALTOR® Of The Year for Cobb Association of REALTORS®, Past Chair of RPAC Cobb Association of REALTORS®, Past Chair and Vice President of Finance, Membership, Professional Development and Atlanta Business Chronicle's "Who's Who in Real Estate," "Top 50 Brokers in Atlanta," "Top 100 Brokers in Atlanta." Deborah served six years as a Director of the Atlanta REALTORS®.

Deborah has spent her career closing real estate transactions, coaching, teaching and supporting successful real estate agents throughout the Atlanta area. Real Estate is her passion, and her goal is to always create an exceptional learning experience in every classroom and to empower, inspire, and ignite passion in those she educates, trains and coaches.

Please welcome Deborah!