

Welcome to Downtown Nashville, Georgia REALTORS®!

Places to Go, Things to Do and Food to Eat... all within walking distance from the Renaissance Hotel

RESTAURANTS

Casual Fare – Acme Feed & Seed, The Alchemy Café (breakfast and lunch only), Assembly Food Hall, Bajo Taco (at the Country Music Hall of Fame), Blanco Concina & Cantina, Café Intermezzo, Corner Pub Downtown, The Diner, The Hampton Social, Hard Rock Café, FGL House, Frothy Monkey, Hattie B's, Martin's BBQ Joint, Merchant's, Miranda Lambert's Casa Rosa, Ole Red, Pancake Pantry, Puckett's, The Stillery, Whisky Row, Yee Haw Brewing Company

On the Finer Side – 60 Vines, Black Rabbit, Bob's Steak & Chop House, Bourbon Steak (at the JW Marriott), Deacon's New South, Etch, Grey & Dudley, Jeff Ruby's Steakhouse, Liberty Common, The Palm, The River House, Skull's Rainbow Room, The Southern Steak & Oyster, Stateside Kitchen (in the Noelle Hotel), The Twelve Thirty Club

Please note: Most of the restaurants "on the finer side" require reservations, but walk-in seating is often available at the bar if the restaurant has one.

ATTRACTIONS

- Country Music Hall of Fame
- Frist Art Museum
- Glen Campbell Museum
- Goo Goo Shop
- Hatch Show Print
- Johnny Cash Museum
- Patsy Cline Museum
- Musicians Hall of Fame and Museum
- National Museum of African American Music
- Printer's Alley
- Ryman Auditorium
- Schermerhorn Symphony Center
- Tennessee State Museum

POINTS OF INTEREST

- Bicentennial Capitol Mall State Park
- First Tennessee Park (home of the Nashville Sounds minor league baseball team)
- John D. Siegenthaler Pedestrian Bridge
- Nashville Public Library
- Tennessee Capitol Building
- War Memorial
- Woolworth on 5th (historic Civil Rights plaque)
- Tennessee Performing Arts Center (TPAC)

NOTE: Nashville is a large, bustling city. As you explore, please remember to be mindful of your surroundings.